DAUGHERTY ADMITS $4,000 MORSE FEE

Sends Letter to Senate Denying He Repudiated His Connection.

MONEY FROM FELDER Did Not Even Cover Expenses and Did Nothing Causing Dishonor.

LARGE WAR FRAUD STAFF

Attorney-General Creates New Division With Many Legal Assistants.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., May 26.

Attorney-General Daugherty tonight announced the creation of an auxiliary legal machine to begin functioning on Monday under his personal direction with twenty assistants in the effort to uncover alleged frauds against the Government in 1917 and 1918. The organization is so large it will be housed outside the Department of Justice Building.

Mr. Daugherty also sent a letter to the Senate denying he ever represented that he had not been an attorney for Charles W. Morse in his effort to get out of the penitentiary. The reading of this letter, addressed to Senator Watson (Ind.), who had denied that Mr. Daugherty had served as Mr. Morse's lawyer, was the signal for another assault on the Attorney-General. The letter was read by Senator Lenroot (Wis.) at the request of Senator Watson, who has not yet returned from his visit to Indiana.

"Nothing was done by me or anybody else in connection with these cases that could not be known to the whole world without reflection upon any one," Mr. Daugherty told Senator Watson, adding that the only pay he got was through Thomas B. Felder, a New York lawyer, amounting to about $4,000, or half enough to pay his expenses.

Development in House.

The row over Mr. Daugherty also developed in the House. Representative Royal C. Johnson (S. D.) attempted to force action on a resolution of inquiry why Mr. Daugherty was not proceeding with the war graft cases. A point of order against Mr. Johnson was sustained, 149 to 114, so that the resolution did not come up.

Representative Reavis (Neb.), who will resign from Congress to assist in the war graft cases, issued a statement declaring he intended to look for crooks inside the Government as well as outside. He charged that official records are in such shape as to make "the trail of the serpent both devious and difficult."

Mr. Daugherty announced the appointment of Meier Steinbrink, lawyer of this city, to be one of his chief assistants in the graft investigation. He also assisted Charles E. Hughes in the aircraft investigation in 1918. Later he helped the Graham committee with its investigation of the Army Air Service. The special Federal Grand Jury which is to hear the evidence in the graft cases was completed today. Major Peyton C. Smith, United States Attorney, was highly pleased over the extremely high character of men chosen. They include bankers, retired manufacturers and others of integrity. Their work will be done in the War Risk Insurance Building, where they will start considering the cases on Wednesday.

Attorney-General's Statement.

Mr. Daugherty's statement outlining the organization of the graft prosecution follows:
"There will be organized a separate division known as the War Contracts Division under the personal direction of the Attorney-General and the assistant to the Attorney-General, Guy Goff. This division is the outgrowth of the organization within the Department of Justice which has been investigating and carrying on the war contracts work."

"It is now necessary, due to expansion of the existing force, to find independent quarters where these special counsel can carry on their work independently of the Department of Justice routine. It has been my endeavor to obtain quarters for these men in the War Risk Insurance Building, where they may be free to devote their time and attention to these matters."

"Five lawyers of recognized ability are to be given full charge under the direction of the Attorney-General of all cases growing out of war contracts. The work will be divided practically as it was by the select committee on expenditures in the War Department of the House of Representatives. That division was a logical one and is now regarded as feasible for this work. The reason that the testimony taken by the five sub-committees has been used as a basis of much of the investigating work already done by the Department."

"The jurisdiction of these several sub-committees was as follows: No. 1, Aviation; No. 2, Camps and Cantonments; No. 3, Foreign Expenditures; No. 4, Quartermaster's Corps and No. 5, Ordnance."

"Each of the five lawyers in direct charge also will have an associate of special ability for this work, and in addition thereto will be given such other assistance as is deemed necessary, including attorneys, investigators and accountants."

"While each of the five lawyers mentioned will have charge of a particular part of the work, as stated, it is proposed that the entire force of lawyers shall cooperate and work together as a body. To this end general conferences will be held from time to time so that the opinions of the entire force can be procured upon doubtful and difficult questions as they arise. In this manner each group will have the benefit of the counsel and advice of the others whenever desired."

SENATE NOT LIKELY TO APPROVE CLOSURE

Supporters Admit They Cannot Muster Two-thirds Vote Required.

TARIFF FIGHT GROWING

Both Sides of Senate Join in Attack on Rates for Steel Products.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., May 26.

The demand of a group of Senators, including Kellogg (Conn.), Lenroot (Wis.) and Cushing (Iowa), for a drastic closure provision to be written into the Senate rules probably will be rejected at the Republican conference tomorrow.

Mr. Dear Senator: To-day for the first time I have had an opportunity to read the Congressional Record of May 12, page 6,726, relative to the colloquy in the Senate regarding my connection with the Morse case. I have read newspaper comment on this discussion, but it was of a general character, and I thought it required no particular attention on my part.

I remember very well a general discussion was had some time ago regarding the Morse case. I certainly did not in that discussion make the statement to you that I had no connection with the Morse case, civil and criminal. My connection with these cases was well known throughout the country, because of extended publicity some years ago. I never denied it, and I have no disposition to deny it. Nothing was done by me or anybody else in connection with these cases that could not be known to the whole world without reflection upon any one.

Morse was released upon the recommendation of Attorney-General Wickensham, who based his recommendation upon the reports of eminent physicians of the Government, including the Surgeon-General of the Army, and the records in the department show all the facts pertaining to the physical condition of Morse when he was released, which was the sole ground for Executive clemency.

As for compensation, I never received anything from Mr. Morse personally. All I ever received from anybody in connection with the Morse cases, both civil and criminal, was about $4,000, advanced to me by Mr. Felder, and was about half enough to pay my necessary expenses and disbursements connected with over a year's active investigation, preparation and service in the cases.

I regret, Senator, if you misunderstood me.

Sincerely yours,
H. M. DAUGHERTY,
Attorney-General.

Meant to Repudiate Charge.

The evident purpose of the letter was to repudiate the charge made by Senator Caraway in a recent speech, in which he stated Mr. Daugherty had deceived his friend, Senator Watson, by denying he had any connection with the Morse case.

To support his position Senator Caraway read the debate between him and Senator Watson on May 15, in which the Daugherty case first came up in the Senate.

In that debate Senator Watson said Mr. Daugherty had no direct connection with the Morse case; that he did not receive any fee, and his contact with Mr. Morse while in the Atlanta prison was for the purpose of procuring from him certain information for another client.

Reading the Record Senator Caraway merely observed: "That language permits of no ambiguity. Now the issue resolves itself in one of veracity between Senator Watson and the Attorney-General."

Then Senator Watson (Ga.) read into the Record some additional statements from the informant to whom he referred yesterday with reference to New York liquor cases. They were as follows:

Add to what you have already said that the District Attorney's office in New York recommended criminal prosecution and confiscation of cargo, yet Daugherty wired to release ship. The H. M. Young is a matter of record in the District Attorney's office and it might be a good idea to ask Major Clark, who is handling the case in the District Attorney's office, for the facts in the Congressional inquiry.

2. Wine seizure: The case referred to in the Continental Wine Company, of which Nathan Musser has been indicted only last Saturday in Philadelphia for conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act. Why did Mr. Daugherty cause the $200,000 worth of wine to be released? This was one of the first acts of Mr. Daugherty when he came into office.

3. Director Harold H. Hart, Thomas Ready and Michael Lynch in New York in the Federal Prohibition Department there, were indicted last November for a conspiracy to violate the Volstead act. They released illegally two million gallons of liquor. When they were arraigned in court Felder appeared for them. Since this time there has been nothing heard of the case and criminal prosecution has come to a stop.

4. There seems to be a good bit of discussion about George Myers's pardon—multimilliarde of Ohio—who was sent to Atlanta for violation of the Mann act. After the Judge and District Attorney recommended that he be kept in jail, Daugherty recommended to the President that he be pardoned.

Mr. Reavis, in announcing his decision to resign from Congress to assist Mr. Daugherty, issued a formal statement, in which he said:
"I have accepted the place at the solicitation of Mr. Daugherty, which is good enough to believe I am capable of doing some service in the effort about to be made to bring these malefactors to justice. Any incidental criticism directed at those responsible for the prosecution should be accepted by an impatient public with full knowledge of the obstacles that must be overcome."

MORSE HEARING ADJOURNED.

Motion for Separate Trials to Come Up on June 9.

After argument by counsel for Stuart G. Gibboney and William A. Barber on the motion to grant them a separate trial and to quash the indictment which names them as codefendants with Charles W. Morse and his three sons, Judge Augustus N. Hand in the United States District Court yesterday granted an adjournment until June 9 to allow any other of the defendants who may wish to join in the motion an opportunity to be heard.

GOV. HARDING PRAISES RECORD OF MELLON

Will Be Known as 'Greatest Treasury Secretary.'

PITTSBURGH, May 26.—Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, was principal guest of honor at the session in the silver anniversary of the Pennsylvania State Bankers Association and the largest assemblage of the week was on hand to greet him.

"Andrew W. Mellon will go down in history as being the Greatest Secretary of the Treasury in the history of the United States," declared W. J. Kellogg, governor of the Federal Reserve Board. "As an evidence of the success that has already attended his administration of the affairs of the Treasury, I may cite the reduction of about $800,000,000 of the public debt which has been effected since his induction into office and in the advance in Liberty bonds from an average price of $89 on March 4, 1921, to approximately par today."

Thomas B. Moaddams, president of the American Bankers' Association of Richmond, said: "Thomas A. Edison and Congress the enactment of legislation which would create $1,000,000,000 in fiat money which would be lent free of interest. Their currency theory is unsound and it is dangerous."

RACER TO USE HELIUM IN HIS FREE BALLOON

Fire Hazard Lessened by First Test of Kind.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Helium probably will be used for the first time in a free balloon in one of the two naval entries in the national elimination balloon race, which starts from Milwaukee May 31. The other naval balloon will be filled with ordinary gas.

Entry of the Helium balloon is contingent upon the consent of the other entrants, owing to the greater buoyancy. No objection is expected, however, as it is planned to reduce the pressure so that all balloons will be on equal terms.

Use of helium, removing much of the fire hazard, will permit the crew to prepare warm food during the flight without risk. Lieutenant-Commander J. P. Norflett will pilot the helium balloon.

M'PARLAND AHEAD 5,750 FOR PRINTERS' PRESIDENT

New Yorker Leads Barrett, Union Chairman Reports.

DENVER, May 26 (Associated Press).—With approximately 40 per cent. of the total vote compiled, John McParland of New York, president of the International Typographical Union, is leading W. W. Barrett, 5,750 for reelection. It was announced today by Charles F. Howard, chairman of the union's campaign committee.

The vote stands: McParland, 12,352; Barrett, 4,602. Each local held an election Wednesday, the results being forwarded here. An official canvass will be made in Indianapolis June 7. Results so far for other offices follow:

First vice-president: Charles P. Howard, Detroit, 11,811; E. R. Campbell, Norfolk, 6,941. Second vice-president: W. R. Trotter, Vancouver, 9,220; J. Hoban, Cleveland, 5,740. Secretary-Treasurer: W. F. Towne, Duluth, 11,511; John W. Hays, Minneapolis, 3,355.

RICCI ON DRY LAW AND WOMAN'S PLACE

Hair or Skirt Lengthened of No Consequence, He Says.

CHICAGO, May 26 (Associated Press).—Vittorio Ricci, Italian Ambassador to the United States, discussed prohibition, short skirts and bobbed hair to-day, along with weightier topics.

"Prohibition is a law the American people have given to themselves," said Ricci, "but I feel they will modify, suppress or abolish it as soon as sentiment becomes greater. I certainly wish that no country the world should be dry."

"As to short skirts and bobbed hair, I am in favor of a short skirt if the legs are beautiful and a long one if not."

"As to the hair, long or short, it does not make any difference to me. A woman knows best how to make herself beautiful and no man dare say her no."

"But after all and above all, women have a common principal duty—motherhood—to have children, take care of them and make them physically and morally worthy citizens. Now, provided they will accomplish this task, the fact that they have bobbed or long hair, that they wear short skirts or long skirts or knickers is of no importance."

POWERS'S SLAYER GETS FIVE YEAR SENTENCE

Soderman Convicted of Manslaughter in Texas.

DALLAS, May 26 (Associated Press).—D. E. Soderman was found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the killing of Jerry Clay Powers, hotel owner, actor and playwright, by a jury in Criminal District Court to-night, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

TWO MORE DEPOSED IN TREASURY ROW

Two Other Attaches Transferred by Blair Following His Quarrel With Dover.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., May 26.

The patronage rumpus in the Treasury Department continued to-day. Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair suspended Samuel G. Patchell, chief payroll examiner, and Frederic Gellinger, a clerk. He also ordered the transfer from Washington to Atlanta of Joseph H. Shawhan and E. P. Smith to Boston.

The suspensions and transfers followed closely the decision by Secretary Mellon to abolish the jobs of A. D. Sumner, Deputy Commissioner of Accounts, and C. G. Childs, Supervisor of Collectors' offices, both appointees of Assistant Secretary Dever.

DAVIS NOW SUSPECTED OF KILLING POLICEMAN

Chicago Wants Man Seized in Poughkeepsie.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Frank Davis, alias Frank Doran, arrested in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., is wanted here in connection with the murders of Police Lieut. Lyons and Patrolman Moeller in the labor war, according to Chief of Detectives Michael Hughes.

He said that if Davis, or Doran, was the man he believed him to be he would be charged with being one of the men who actually fired the shots. The killing of Lyons and Moeller while they were investigating bombings precipitated the police drive which brought murder indictments against "Big Tim" Murphy, Fred Mader, "Con" Shea and other labor leaders.

PROBATIONER, May 26.—District Attorney Aldrich of Dutchess county today received a telegram from District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles asking that a statement be obtained from Frank Doran. A taxi driver said Doran admitted he was being sought for the shooting of William Desmond Taylor, the movie director, but Doran denied it. Doran admitted having been in Los Angeles in 1915 and 1917. He said he had heard of Taylor and would not deny having known him.
